

Course Summary

Strengthen your English Language proficiency with Global ATS' English language course. Focused on key skills such as Listening, Reading, Speaking, and Writing, this pre-test training course enhances grammar and vocabulary, priming candidates for further academic achievement as they build towards their ICAO certificate for English Language Proficiency.

This course sees applicants make use of a wide range of learning materials, including:

- Dedicated English Language Course books and dictionaries
- Specially prepared materials issued to all students
- Discussion-led classroom activities focussing on practical, communicative exercises

Course Curriculum

- Listening and Comprehension
- Speaking & Conversation
- Reading Comprehension
- Writing Skills
- Grammar
- Vocabulary
- Social and Interactive English
- Exam Preparation (Cambridge Exams, IELTS, ESB)

Who Is This Course For?

This course is designed for applicants looking to improve their all round English Language skills in preparation for the Aviation English Language Proficiency Test.

In addition to being taken in preparation for further study, this training course is ideal for individuals looking to enhance their travel or employment opportunities.

Global ATS' English Language course is an entry-level offering. We welcome all candidates from elementary to advanced abilities. There is no entry criteria to participate in the course and no previous experience is required.

Course Duration
1 Week - 6
Months

Group Size
3-20 Students
per Course